

Examples from C.C.C. Chuen Yuen Second Primary School:

- Providing opportunities for practising and applying knowledge and skills through integrative language use
- Infusing RaC and STEM elements into the school-based English curriculum

L/T activity	P3	P4	How to enhance a smooth interface
Integrated task	Listening and writing	Reading, listening and writing	Promote integrative language use
STEM activity	Bread test	Drink/egg test	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Encourage different learning modes: focus on learner independence and learning through observation and discovery - Increase task complexity across levels
Reading materials	Home reading booklets	Extended reading	Widen reading exposure and broaden knowledge base: expose students to a variety of text types, including fiction, nonfiction, RaC texts and multimodal texts

Examples from St Mary’s Canossian School:

- Filling the emotion gaps through promoting values education and deepen understanding through varied learning modes

Focus	P3	P4	How to enhance a smooth interface
Values education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Self-esteem and self-recognition - Care for others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Care for others - Healthy lifestyle - Environmental protection 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Meet students’ emotional needs - Increase students’ exposure
Learning modes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SDL (e.g. KWHL) - e-Learning (e.g. Nearpod) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - SDL (e.g. KWL) - e-Learning (e.g. information search skills, kid-friendly websites) 	Vary learning modes to foster rich and deep learning