

CDC News (June 2019)

The 63rd CDC Meeting was held on 14 November 2018 (Wednesday). Salient points of the discussion are summarised as follows:

Updates on the latest development and support measures on the curriculum for students with special educational needs (SEN)

- The latest updates on the progress of reviewing the curriculum guide for special schools were reported.
- The support measures for students with SEN were reported and discussed:
 - professional development programmes for teachers
 - use of IT equipment

Updates on the latest development of STEM education in schools

- The progress of the promotion of STEM education and its support measures to schools were reported.
- Views on the enhancement of STEM education in schools were exchanged:
 - planning and implementation of STEM education in the whole-school curriculum
 - professional development programmes for teachers

A.O.B

- The progress of Hong Kong's participation in the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)'s Education 2030 project was reported.
- The progress of work of the Advisory Committee on "Business-related Learning" in Technology Education Key Learning Area at Senior Secondary Level was reported.

ENDS