

Task 3: All Roads Lead to Rome

You would like to include the development of nursing education in Hong Kong in your feature article. However, you are aware that the recording on the nursing profession is over 10 years old and some of the information you have gathered for point number 3, “Ways to become a nurse”, in the note sheet may be outdated. You have decided to visit the following websites and update the relevant information on the nursing profession and nursing education accordingly. You would like to present the updates available on the websites in the form of a table.
