Objectives

Our Section has collaborated with secondary schools to make good use of the space and flexibility created by the optimising measures to enrich students' learning experiences through adopting a range of strategies. This event aims to share good curriculum practices of these collaborating schools on how to:

1. infuse life planning education and values education into the language curriculum, with the aim of catering for diverse students' learning needs and enriching their learning experiences
2. enhance students language literacy and deepen students' understanding of Chinese culture through using a range of texts, cross-disciplinary collaboration and outside-the-classroom activities
3. organise theme-based exploratory journeys in the community to connect students' learning and life and nurture their sense of responsibility and love for the community
